

Employment Opportunity - Police Officer

The La Plata Police Department is seeking Maryland certified police officer applicants to join the ranks of a growing law enforcement agency. The Department is committed to the concept of community policing by partnering with its diverse community members and a wide range of other governmental organizations, community groups, non-profit organizations and the local business association to ensure everyone who lives, works, visits and trades in the Town has a superior quality of life.

The La Plata Police Department is currently comprised of 16 sworn officers and one civilian employee. The Department performs around the clock patrols, investigations, emergency management and most other law enforcement functions. Officers are a visible presence in the community, patrolling the Town, attending neighborhood meetings, participating in community policing events and providing support for the Town's Special Events.

The salary range for police officer is $45,130 to $68,580 and is supplemented by an outstanding benefits package. If you are a Maryland certified law enforcement officer who has a strong desire to serve a dynamic community, you are encouraged to apply. Online applications are available at townoflaplata.org, click on the link below. The Town of La Plata is an equal opportunity employer.
